TERRY RAMEY [D] FILES TO RUN FOR HAYWOOD COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

Waynesville, North Carolina. December 1, 2015. A sixty-one year resident of Haywood County, Terry Ramey filed for candidacy for Haywood County Commissioner. Mr. Ramey has a strong background of standing up for “the people”.

“I feel like everything should be checked out before decisions are made, which has not been the case with our current set of county commissioners”.

Mr. Ramey feels he has a strong enough voice that he can get people to work together, no matter what party affiliation they are.

“I feel like public officials can get a lot more accomplished if they work with the people instead of against the people”.
