THIRD ANNUAL HAYWOOD COUNTY PIG PICKIN' AT THE AMERICAN LEGION.

Waynesville, North Carolina. October 10, 2016. Terry Ramey and Monroe Miller are announcing the third annual Pig Pickin' on Saturday, October 22, 2016, from 3:00 - 7:00 pm at the American Legion.

This is a non-partisan event for the purpose of offering an informal setting for Haywood County voters to meet the candidates, this year being national, state and county elections, and for candidates to interact with regular folks.

The American Legion does not allow political speeches, so this will be an opportunity to have candidates talk with voters one-on-one and voters to ask candidates questions.

There is no admission charge and no charge for the food and drinks, which are donated. In previous years, there were well over 300 people. Pigs were cooked by Chuck Rector, and "picked" by Eddie Cabe along with many other volunteers.

The following 2016 State and Local Candidates running on the Haywood County ballot have been invited:

Republican County Chair, Ken Henson, and Democrat County Chair, Myrna Campbell along with representatives from the Libertarian Party have been invited. There will be small tents from the Republican and Democrat Parties providing candidate information.

If you care to make a donation in time, food, or cash for this event, please contact Terry Ramey.
