Say Martha,

You don't look to be in very good shape right now, especially when WPD Detective Paige Shell directly contradicts what you have been telling people. From Haywoodhappenings.org: <https://haywoodhappenings.org/content.haywoodhappenings.org/viewtopic.php?p=633&sid=c4ac6e68602f9fd70cd206b02be0de86#p633>

"Jess Scott says that while Detective Shell was taking his incident report yesterday, she stated that an (Investigation) was never done concerning this incident. Her statement directly contradicts Town Attorney Martha Bradley's memo and Councilman Anthony Sutton's statement (2nd paragraph)". That sucks.

I appreciate the offer you made to me on 7/26/2023 -

"Mr. Miller – I would gladly give you every article of clothing in my home if it could persuade you to stop tilting at these windmills."

You know, I had to look that one up. Since I have not received any article of clothing from you, I presume I have not "stopped tilting at these windmills". It means - "Tilting at windmills is an English idiom that means "attacking imaginary enemies". The expression is derived from Don Quixote , and the word "tilt" in this context refers to jousting ." Please let me know who these imaginary enemies are, so that I can start collecting items from your wardrobe, especially the string bikini.

I would like to pass a saying on to you, one my mother told me...

"Oh what a tangled web we weave when at first we start to deceive", by Walter Scott in his poem "Marmion." 'When first we practice to deceive' means that when you lie or act dishonestly you are initiating problems and a domino structure of complications.

This is the problem Zeb Smathers ran into when I filed a grievance against him. He represented a client in court on a civil matter who was not his client, and he subsequently sent me an email confirming he did not represent that client in a civil capacity. The North Carolina State Bar is still constipating over that.

So the problem I now have, is that you got Chief David Adams to release to me two WPD Incident Reports. Obviously, that was before WPD conducted any type of investigation. Now, Chief Adams says he won't release anything until the investigation is complete. Do you think for one moment that this investigation will ever be complete? This is the problem with Municipal Police Departments. Chief Adams reports to Rob Hites, and he gets his marching orders from the Mayor, City Council members, and you. The conflict of interest is mind boggling. This is where an independent agency may need to come in and straighten this whole thing out, like the SBI. Help me out here. Who should I go to?

Anyway, your grievance may very well turn out to be the longest one I have submitted to date. (Please review the graveyard of grievances I have filed in www.haywoodtp.net, Interesting Stuff Archives).

Still waiting for the go-ahead to review the surveillance security videos and take some pictures of the woman's locker room. That's when your house-of-cards is going to come crashing down.

Chief Adams and Brandon Gilmore,

You, Brandon Gilmore and Detective Paige Shell have about six (6) days to square your investigation away before this whole thing gets blown wide open. You see, the Concerned Citizens of Haywood made the following announcement on HaywoodHappenings.org - <https://haywoodhappenings.org/content.haywoodhappenings.org/viewtopic.php?p=633&sid=46782c1db30e130b3b3c92089cfa727f#p633>

"Jess Scott Files Incident Report with WPD over Waynesville Rec. Center Incident Jess Scott (Parent and Sunday School Teacher) and Josh Skidmore (Pastor of Fines Creek Baptist Church) to Speak to Citizens and The Buttered Biscuit Next Thursday (8/3) Updated Speaker Schedule".

"8/03 Jess Scott and Pastor Josh Skidmore (Sunday School Teacher, Pastor of Fines Creek Baptist Church) Speaking from 5:30-6:00
Mike Clampitt (NC District 119 Representative) Speaking from 6:00 PM to 7:00 PM".

This means that you, Brandon Gilmore and Paige Shell will have needed to review the same surveillance video at the Rec Center on 7/12 as I did, but in the afternoon when the two frightened and freaked out girls were there, which I was not allowed to view. You will need to confirm what you all see on the video, especially if you spot our boy there in the afternoon, and make it public, presumably through an updated incident report, prior to the Thursday evening Buttered Biscuit meeting, or it will be too late.

You will need to make a choice whether to break away from Martha Sharpe Bradley, Jesse Fowler and Anthony Sutton, or back them and join them in their incestuous cesspool.

I would appreciate receiving a copy of the appended/updated (or new) WPD incident report based on Jess Scott's input, WPD2301051, now.

Additionally, I would like to suggest that you assign a WPD officer to be present at the Buttered Biscuit Thursday evening, in case Cory Vaillancourt (or any other news media) decides to crash the meeting and go berserk, so he can be thrown off the (private) property.

Thank you,

Monroe A. Miller, Jr.

I'm certain there is going to be a Part 5.
