What’s Happening?

The purpose of this newsletter is to inform Haywood County Taxpayers of what transpires at the bi-monthly County Commission Meetings. This newsletter will be written from the perspective of a casual observer, myself. Any opinions expressed will be mine.

Preliminary Voting Guide - November Election.

Never too early to begin thinking about the November Election. This issue lays out a preliminary guide to the following sets of candidates:

- County Commissioners
- Sheriff
- US Representative, 11th District

It is my belief that due to dissatisfaction with Joe Biden (a.k.a. Let’s Go Brandon), democrat participation in the November election is going to be suppressed, because democrats are in a deep funk right now. Therefore, I do not see any democrat winning these offices in November. Having said that, there is a lot of time between now and the November election. Let’s see if anything changes between now and then.

As before, to visually aid in this process, I will again use the now familiar symbols:

The Toeprints Seal of Approval

No, no - don’t vote here!

County Commissioners.

Jennifer Best [R]

Tommy Long [M]

Terry Ramey [R]

James Weaver “Kirk” Kirkpatrick III [D]

Jeff Haynes [D]

[Editor’s Note: [M] = Manikin.]

Sheriff.

Bill Wilke [R]

Larry Bryson [D]

US Representative, 11th District.

Chuck Edwards [R]

Jasmine Beach-Ferrara [D]

Legend: If any name is in bold, it can’t be a good thing.
